

Interview Questions - SRS

1	Which field are you working in Physics?
2	How long have you been working in this field?
3	Is it a research area or the applied sciences?
4	What do you generally use for complex calculations? Do you use any specific device?
5	What are the features of that device?
6	Is there anything you think that is missing in that device?
7	Are you familiar with Gelfond's constant? http://mathworld.wolfram.com/GelfondsConstant.html https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gelfond%27s_constant
8	What do you think are the applications of the Gelfond's constant?
9	Would you use Gelfond's constat in your research/applications? Why not or how often?
10	Would you have the Gelfond's constant in the device you use for your calculations?
11	What kind of interface would you like for the device? Would you be comfortable having a website or the desktop application on your phone or an application on the phone or a separate device?	